

THR3E

We are THR3e!R3 is three years old today!

R3Location has reached a significant milestone in its development this year. R3Location has turned three years of age! According to Bloomberg, 8 out of 10 start-ups fail within the first 24 months. 87% crash and burn after three years. R3Location is now part of an elite 13% of start-ups and we know our company is here to stay as a major player on the London Market for the following three reasons:

■ We are reliable and committed

Above all, clients value dependability and stability. In an industry where change of key personnel is frequent, and often disrupts good service, nothing has given more stability to R3, its clients and their assignees than the reliable, constant effort of the management team to deliver value over and above what the competition has to offer.

■ We are different - but in a good way!

Specialising in VIPs at inception, we have now been able to successfully extend our deeply personal service to support all different levels of assignees moving to the UK.

■ We are London experts

As the only centrally-based destination services company, we are close to our clients and the London rental market. We live and breathe relocation and focus our investment entirely to deliver truly exceptional services in this area. Being an expert really matters when it comes to delivering quality.

We are deeply grateful to all our clients and partners who have supported us since the beginning and look forward to continuing to work with you all in the next three years and beyond!
