

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

From R3Location

It has been so rewarding again this year to have provided support to so many people and find new homes for them and their families.

Regardless of what will happen in 2020: Brexit, or no-brexit, or soft brexit, or hard brexit, or a hung parliament, or a 2nd referendum, or a further extension of Article 50, or something else entirely, R3 will remain a certainty and we will be here to help no matter what!

With our very best wishes to you and your family for a joyful and peaceful holiday.

Happy Christmas from us all at R3Location.
